

POD Network in Higher Education
2006 Annual Conference
Best Practices in New Faculty Orientations
Elizabeth J. Sandell, Ph. D.
Lori Schroeder, M. A.

Selected References

Books and Journal Articles:

- Boice, R. (1992). The new faculty member: Supporting and fostering professional development. San Francisco: Jossey-Bass.
- Boice, R. (1991). New faculty as teachers. Journal of Higher Education, 62, 150–173.
- Burnstad, H. M. (Winter 2002). Part-time faculty development at Johnson County Community College. [Electronic version]. In New Directions for Community Colleges, 120, 17-26.
- France, R. (1996). Comprehensive orientation leads to quality academic program. Adjunct Info: A Journal for Managers of Adjunct and Part-Time Faculty, 4, 1–2.
- Grieve, D. E., & Worden, C. A. (Eds.). (2002). Managing adjunct and part-time faculty for the new millennium. Elyria, OH: Info-Tec.
- Lyons, R. E. (2005). Success strategies for adjunct faculty. New York: Pearson Education, Inc.
- McGlynn, A. P. (2001). Successful beginnings for college teaching. Madison, WI: Atwood Publishing Co.
- Smith, M., & Wright, D. (2000). Orientation of adjunct and part-time faculty: Exemplary models. In D. E. Grieve & C. A. Worden, (Eds.), Managing adjunct & part-time faculty for the new millennium. Elyria, OH: Info-Tec.

Web Sites:

- An eHandbook for New Faculty: <http://vfc4.project.mnscu.edu>
- Metropolitan State Center for Teaching and Learning:
<http://www.metrostate.edu/ctl/index.html>
- Minnesota State University, Mankato. (2005-2006). Faculty resource guide.
<http://www.mnsu.edu/cetl/teachingresources/frg-2005-06.pdf>
- University of Guelph New Faculty Orientation:
<http://www.uoguelph.ca/facultyjobs/nfo.shtml>
- University of Michigan New Faculty Orientation:
<http://www.crlt.umich.edu/crlttext/orientationschedule06text.html>
- University of Minnesota Early Teaching Program:
<http://www1.umn.edu/ohr/teachlearn/early/index.html>