This book is organized into chapters based on the Town of Bailey's mayoral terms from 1908 to the present. A discussion of merchants, businesses, civic organizations, town events and school activities are included in the book. It also contains town developments and some biographical information for each mayor.

The book contains 306 pages with an introduction and 30 chapters. There are two appendices, an index and 131 illustrations. The illustrations include early photographs, diagrams and advertisements.
